- Penrith City Council's vision for a new industrial employment hub at 158–164 Old Bathurst Road, Emu Plains, has reached a significant milestone with the Development Application (DA) formally submitted for assessment.

The DA for the 16.29 hectare site seeks to deliver a centre for growth and innovation by subdividing the land into over 40 small- to medium-sized industrial lots, allowing businesses to locate close to home and boosting local employment opportunities.
