COUNCIL BRIEFS

- Council's 16 Days of Action Against Gender-Based Violence social media campaign will run from Thursday, 25 November 2021 to Friday, 10 December 2021. Each day, for 16 days, we'll share an action you can take to foster gender equality and respect for women and girls to help end gender-based violence. Everyone deserves to feel safe in their home and their community.

To get involved or to find out more follow Council's Facebook, Instagram or Twitter accounts or go to penrith.city/16days

- Election day, Saturday, 4 December is fast approaching. Did you know absentee voting is not an option at local elections?

Voting is compulsory, so if you won't be in Penrith on election day, or are concerned about the COVID-19 situation, you must apply for a postal vote before 5pm Monday, 29 November 2021 or make a pre-poll vote up to two weeks before the election.

To find out more, go to penrith.city/Council-Election

- Penrith City Council is transforming the city centre with the delivery of a vibrant new green City Park. Dismantling of buildings within the City Park site, on the corner of Henry and Station Streets, will get underway soon and there are changes happening within the city centre to allow this work to occur.

Some of the changes around the City Park site include the closure of a small section of Allen Place car park and the closure of the entry into Allen Place car park from Station Street.

The remaining section of Allen Place will remain open for one and two-hour parking and can be accessed by Henry Street and Edwards Place.

A new temporary car park is being built on Woodriff Street to offset the loss of parking.
