COUNCIL BRIEFS

- It's important to be flood ready. Council is preparing a flood study for the Cranebrook catchment which includes the suburbs of Cranebrook and North Penrith.

Your feedback and experience are invaluable to us, please visit yoursaypenrith.com.au/CranebrookFS to complete the survey by Friday, 9 October 2020.

- One of the most important things Council does is talk to the community about new projects, initiatives, and changes in our City.

To do this, Council uses the Your Say Penrith website. It's a fantastic tool that allows you to provide your feedback and ideas to help shape Penrith. You can even register to get regular updates on the projects you're interested in through the site.

There are lots of projects on Your Say Penrith right now, so jump on to yoursaypenrith.com.au and make your voice heard.

- Penrith City Council, in collaboration with Nepean Community College, is giving local food businesses the opportunity to complete two short online webinars to become COVID-safe.

These webinars will assist businesses complete their COVID-19 Safety Plans or improve their current COVID-19 Safety Plans to avoid being fined. Offered free of charge, you can also complete a nationally accredited online infection control module. The webinars start on Tuesday, 13 October 2020, with more sessions being held as needed. To find out more information and to book, contact Michael Middleton on 4732 7531 or email michael.middleton@penrith.city

PUBLIC NOTICE

Londonderry Goat Impounding Notice

Penrith City Council is publicly notifying the impounding of up to 45 goats from various acreage properties in Londonderry. The goats are varied in age and size with no readily identifiable markings or characteristics. Some animals are in poor condition.

If anyone has a claim to these animals, they are required to contact Penrith City Council Animal on Services on 4732 7543 and/or council@penrith.city with appropriate evidence of ownership. If no submissions are made within seven days from the date of this advertisement, Council may take other action as described in Section 64(1)(b) of the Impounding Act 1993.
